SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 316

Offered by Senators Link, Geo-Karis, Peterson, Philip, E. Jones and all Senators:

Mourns the death of Daniel T. Drew, Mayor of Waukegan.

The foregoing resolution was referred to the Resolutions Consent Calendar.

Senator Sullivan offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Rules:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 317

WHEREAS, The health of our children is paramount; and

WHEREAS, Our children attend school for numerous hours a day and our school buildings need to be environmentally safe; and

WHEREAS, exposure limits to molds, which are forms of multicellular fungi that live on plant or animal matter and in indoor environments, have in some cases proven to result in adverse health effects; and

WHEREAS, Instances of mold such as Cladosporium, Penicillium, Alternaria, Aspergillus, Fusarium, Trichoderma, Mucor, and Stachybotrys, have been reported to be present in some elementary and secondary schools throughout our State; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that the Department of Public Health shall convene a task force, appointed by the Director, which shall examine the feasibility of adopting guidelines to address mold in elementary and secondary schools; and be it further

RESOLVED, That in conducting its examination, the task force shall consider, among other things, the following:

1) the adverse health effects of exposure to molds on children as well as adults;

2) the identification of the causes or origins of high concentrations of molds in schools;

3) the latest scientific data or existing standards, if any, adopted by authoritative bodies;

4) the feasibility of adopting remediation guidelines for building materials contaminated with mold in schools that would provide protection for occupants and cleanup personnel; and

5) an estimate cost of mitigating high exposures of mold in elementary and secondary schools; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the task force shall, at a minimum, be comprised of representatives from the Illinois Department of Public Health, the University of Illinois at Chicago School of Public Health, the Illinois Department of Labor, the Building Research Council at the University of Illinois, a private environmental consulting firm that specializes in mold remediation, an allergist/immunologist, and a certified industrial hygienist; and be it further

RESOLVED, The Director shall appoint a Chairman; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the task force shall meet at the call of the Chairman, and shall report its findings and recommendations concerning mold exposure in elementary and secondary schools to the Senate by filing a copy of its report with the Secretary of the Senate on or before January 1, 2003; and be it further

RESOLVED That upon filing its report the task force is dissolved.

[Feb. 6, 2002]

Senators O'Daniel, Bowles, Sieben, Woolard and L. Walsh offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Rules:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 318

WHEREAS, Agricultural lands of the State contribute substantially to the State, national, and world food supplies and are a vital part of the State's economy; and

WHEREAS, It is the policy of the State to conserve, protect, and encourage the development and improvement of its agricultural land for the production of food, fiber, and other agricultural products; and

WHEREAS, It is in the public interest to encourage the preservation of farm land, forest land, and open space land in order to maintain a readily available source of food and farm products close to the urban areas of the State; and

WHEREAS, It is in the public interest to prevent the forced conversion of farm land, forest land, and open space land to more intensive uses as the result of economic pressures caused by the assessment of that land for purposes of property taxation at values incompatible with its preservation as farm land, forest land, or open space land; and

WHEREAS, Funding may be necessary to better address the needs of conserving agricultural land near urban areas; and

WHEREAS, Long-term private stewardship of agricultural lands can be encouraged by offering landowners financial incentives; and

WHEREAS, Local land planning for orderly and efficient urban growth and conservation of agricultural land should be encouraged; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we join California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Maine, Michigan, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Carolina, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Virginia, Washington, and Wisconsin in affirming the importance of farmland protection.

Senators O'Daniel, Bowles, Sieben, Welch, L. Walsh, Clayborne and Woolard offered the following Senate Joint Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Rules:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 49

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois benefits from the revenues and economic activity of countless businesses and public utilities that rely on flood control structures to protect individuals and property from the ravages of the Illinois, Kaskaskia, Mississippi, and Ohio rivers; and

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois benefits from improved public health and quality of life for its citizens due to well-drained land and to access to marinas that offer waterborne recreational activities; and

WHEREAS, The State of Missouri benefits from hundreds of miles of navigable waterways and waterborne commerce on the Illinois, Kaskaskia, Mississippi, and Ohio rivers; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING HEREIN, that the Illinois General Assembly supports strengthening flood control structures to a common level of protection to improve the safety and well-being of the State's citizens, wildlife

sanctuaries, and economic assets; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Illinois General Assembly endorses the federally-funded Upper Mississippi River Comprehensive Plan that is to develop recommendations for systemic flood protection and for coordinating the varied uses of the Illinois and Mississippi rivers; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Illinois General Assembly supports maintaining the current Missouri River Water Control Plan that allows for the greatest protection from floods in southwestern Illinois, adequate navigation service levels on the Mississippi, ample supplies of hydropower, recreation in and along the river and its reservoirs and habitat for numerous species; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Illinois General Assembly encourages modernization of the navigation locks and dams on the Illinois, Kaskaskia and Mississippi rivers to maintain the Midwest's position in global markets and to facilitate movement of commodities that produce energy (coal, oil), build the foundations of communities (cement), and protect Midwestern communities from extreme weather conditions (salt to melt snow, petroleum when trucks could not haul enough to meet shortages), and to facilitate movement of recreational boaters over the rivers; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate, and each member of the Illinois congressional delegation.

Senator L. Walsh offered the following Senate Joint Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Rules:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 50

WHEREAS, The bounty of agriculture from the State of Illinois is a primary source of high-quality foods that nourish the people of the world, and the global consumption of the produce of Illinois' agriculture is expected to grow at least three percent annually for the next two decades; and

WHEREAS, The markets for Illinois' agricultural products are increasingly global and complex, and Illinois farmers, marketers, suppliers, and food, feed, fiber, and medical and industrial raw material processors have a need to take steps to protect the viability of their operations against the vagaries of the global agricultural market while taking advantage of value-added opportunities; and

WHEREAS, In recent years, Illinois' farmers, marketers, suppliers, and food, feed, fiber, and medical and industrial raw material processors have responded to the uncertainties and complexities of global markets by entering into contracts to stabilize production, delivery, and pricing of agricultural products; and

WHEREAS, Illinois' agricultural economy has a need for a consistent framework for these contracts, so as to ensure that efforts to reduce the uncertainties of global agricultural markets that face Illinois' farmers, marketers, suppliers, and food, feed, fiber, and medical and industrial raw material processors is done within a framework that is fair to farmers and processors; that improves Illinois' competitive advantage in retaining and attracting agriculture and agriculture-related businesses; and that increases the competitive advantage of Illinois' agricultural products in the growing global markets; and

WHEREAS, Illinois' lawmakers are challenged to respond to the needs of Illinois' agricultural economy in a manner that is fair to every segment of Illinois' agricultural economy and that provides the greatest opportunity for the economic viability and growth of all components of Illinois' agricultural economy; therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING HEREIN, that the Attorney General and the Director of Agriculture are urged to convene a panel of interested parties; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the panel should conduct an independent review of the guidelines, rules, and laws that currently apply to the execution and performance of agricultural contracts in Illinois, with the purpose of determining what protections are currently available under State and federal law and of determining the need for further guidelines, rules, or laws to assure clarity and basic fairness for farmers, marketers, suppliers, and food, feed, fiber, and medical and industrial raw material processors, that improve Illinois' competitive advantage in retaining and attracting agriculture and agriculture-related businesses, and that increase the competitive advantage of Illinois' agricultural products in the growing global markets; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the panel should conduct an independent review of the types of agricultural production, production-related, marketing, and marketing-related contracts currently being used in the State of Illinois, to determine the impact of the different types of available contracts on Illinois' agricultural economy; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the panel should recommend specific types of education to be offered for all sectors of Illinois' agricultural economy to promote the understanding of the benefits and responsibilities of entering into agricultural marketing, marketing-related, production, and production-related contracts; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the panel should monitor the use of the recommended education programs concerning agricultural production and marketing contracts; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the panel should report to the General Assembly, no later than January 8, 2003, on its findings; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the panel convened should be jointly chaired by the Attorney General, or his or her designee, and the Director of Agriculture, or his or her designee, and should be composed of representatives from the following groups: the Chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee or his or her designee; the Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee or his or her designee; one individual farmer nominated by the Director of Agriculture; one individual farmer nominated by the Attorney General; one representative nominated by the Illinois Farm Bureau; one representative nominated by the Illinois Farmers' Union; one representative nominated by the Illinois Corn Growers' Association; one representative nominated by the Illinois Soybean Association; one representative nominated by the Illinois Specialty Growers' Association; one representative nominated by the Illinois Fertilizer and Chemical Association; one representative nominated by the Grain and Feed Association of Illinois; one representative nominated by the Illinois Seed Trade Association; one representative nominated by the Midwest Food Processors Association; one representative nominated by the Illinois Pork Producers Association; one representative nominated by the Illinois Beef Association; one representative nominated by the Illinois Poultry Association; one representative nominated by the Illinois Milk Producers Association; and one representative nominated by the Illinois Chamber of Commerce; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the panel should meet as directed by the Attorney

[Feb. 6, 2002]

General and the Director of Agriculture, and representatives shall serve without compensation; and be it further

RESOLVED, That due to the technical legal nature of the contractual law issues that will be reviewed by the panel, the representatives may be assisted and advised by legal counsel of their choosing, at their own expense; the presence of a representative's legal counsel does not entitle that representative to an additional vote in making the panel's recommendations; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be delivered to the Attorney General and the Director of Agriculture.

Senator Mahar offered the following Senate Joint Resolution, which was ordered printed and referred to the Committee on Rules:
